

Gregory, Doyle, Calhoun & Rogers, LLC offers comprehensive representation in all types of commercial and finance transactions, secured or unsecured for both lenders and borrowers. We represent state and federally chartered banks and financial institutions located in the Southeast, as well as venture capital groups, individuals, investors, private equity groups, business owners and entrepreneurs.

Our attorneys understand and guide clients through the compliance requirements and business issues unique to their commercial finance transaction. We are responsive, efficient and detailed. Gregory Doyle attorneys provide start to finish services, from advising on current regulations, to the negotiation, structuring, documentation and closing of the finance transaction. All due diligence is conducted in-house. Our substantial knowledge and extensive experience extends beyond the traditional commercial loan to unique financing structures, including SBA 7(A) loans, healthcare financing, management buyouts, loan modifications, equipment leases or financing, with purchase option, education bonds and financing, accounts receivable financing, construction financing, letters of credit, loan restructures and workouts, private loans and mezzanine lending.

We regularly handle a variety of related financing matters, such as intercreditor agreements, subordination documents, guaranties, stand-by structures, forbearance arrangements, opinion letters, and loan participations and syndications.

Our attorneys' strong relationships with the Southeast's leading lenders and their special asset departments coupled with our understanding of the complexities of today's real estate markets and national economy provide us with a unique niche in representing both lenders and borrowers/guarantors in commercial loan workouts and restructurings. Our attorneys represent borrowers in complex commercial loan workouts across Georgia, Florida and Alabama. We also represent an international private equity firm in restructuring or litigating its Georgia-based commercial real estate portfolio. Whether representing lenders or borrowers/guarantors in workouts, restructurings, or litigation, our attorneys have the experience and knowledge to achieve the best results possible for our clients.

Simply put, our team will provide you with compliant practical services and solutions at every phase of a commercial finance transaction.
